Social Contract

All members shall, to the best of their abilities, abide by the following points.

- There shall be a daily scrum-meeting in which the group members meet in person every weekday (mon-fri). The times of these meetings will vary.
- The group members shall be on time for all meetings set by the group.
- All group members shall actively contribute to the creation of the deliverables D1-D5.
- All group members shall use the same git-workflow, which will be decided by the group.
- All group members shall give notice to the rest of the group whenever their abilities to contribute to the project is inhibited in a significant way.
- All group members shall ask for help when it is needed, and provide help to the best of their abilities when it is asked for.
- There shall be a scrum master that will keep order in the meetings.
- The consequences of not abiding by the above-mentioned points to the best of their abilities shall be lowered scores in the evaluation at the end of the course.